

What Rooftop colleagues have to say ... about Ulrike Wolff

- Embodies authority and responsibility
- Has deep empathy coupled with a high degree of intellectuality and attentive language
- Challenges in a confident and stimulating manner
- Is highly identified with her task and applies an extraordinary level of effort to it
- Engages fully and completely with people and situations, without losing control of the process
- Well-considered in everything she says and does
- Remains sympathetic and appreciative, even in difficult situations

about her approach / method

- Morally incorruptible
- Places high demands on performance, to the extent of perfectionism
- A high level of attention, extraordinary memory for relevant content and context
- Can express the inner feelings of others on their behalf and get to the heart of the matter
- Creates clarity, without offending others
- Undaunted when dealing with power structures
- Provides stability and security in difficult processes

about her expertise

- Is familiar with the ways of thinking and 'living conditions' at top management level
- Confident and accepted when dealing with executive board and supervisory board panels
- Experienced in the support of CEOs and in the development of teams at the top

about her contribution and group conscience

- Founder of our group
- Organizes and carries the group
- Moderates our dynamics: maintains balance between situational attentiveness and meta-perspective
- Pays attention to professionalism, quality and substance
- Displays compassion: high sense of awareness of the consternation of others
- Scrupulous in the best possible sense of the word, always looks to ensure everybody saves face